

- Developed a realtime object detection and landmarking system using Mediapipe (newer Tasks API), OpenCV and Streamlit.
- The application supports hand tracking, finger counting and face detection, and can be accessed via a web interface using WebRTC for video streaming.
- Will be adding more features like pose estimation and object detection in the future.